

August 17 & 18 2012,
Conneaut Township Park,
Conneaut Ohio

D-Day Ohio, Inc. for the 13th consecutive year, will invade this quiet lakeside town and bring together historians and patriots from across the United States and Canada to help relive June 6, 1944; the largest combined amphibious and airborne landing in history.

Come and experience living history displays and learn about the planning, tools, preparations, and sacrifices made by those who stormed the beaches of Normandy.

Event features 3 unique live-action battles.

- Fri. Evening Foucarville Battle: 5:00 PM
- Sat. Morning La Fiere Bridge Battle: 11:00 AM
- Sat. Afternoon Beach Landing: 3:00 PM
- Sat. Evening USO Dance: 8:00 PM

Join us to remember and honor the soldiers and sailors of the Allied and Axis forces of World War II.

Join us at the 13th annual D-Day Conneaut.

Learn about the sacrifices made on D-Day, June 6, 1944. Visit living history encampments, battle reenactments, lectures, displays, and kids learning zone. Watch as over 500 reenactors occupy pre-invasion encampments and engage in 3 unique battles. See what made this the "greatest generation".

Special VIP recognition is given to all veterans, particularly those who served in WWII.*
