

Echoes of an Era: 1940s American Salute

Presented by

Conneaut Community Center for the Arts with

The Conneaut Community Foundation

On the Newcomb Performing Terrace

in the Port of Conneaut

In conjunction with D-Day Ohio's 10th re-enactment of the 1944 Normandy invasion, the Conneaut Community Center for the Arts and the Conneaut Community Foundation are presenting a review of popular and patriotic songs of the 40s by the Don Disantis Orchestra of Cleveland. This concert is FREE to the community and the many visitors who will be attending the D-Day re-enactment. Join us for "As Time Goes By," "Sentimental Journey," and many popular tunes of the era, as well as "White Cliffs of Dover," "I'll Be Seeing You," and a salute to the Armed Forces. Bring a blanket or lawn chair and prepare to be wowed by this fantastic musical group, and transported through time by these favorite songs of the 1940s.

Friday
August 20, 2010
6:30 p.m.

